

Two Million Dollar Fire Sweeps Carbondale Business Block

30 Stores, Factory Hit By Flames

FIRE RAVAGED the heart of Carbondale's business district yesterday. Flames destroyed an estimated 30 business places. Damages will total more than $2,000,000.

Included in the business houses lost by fire were two operated by Joseph A. Farber. He is the brother of Philip Farber, Delaware Water Gap restaurant owner.

Farber said last night that the Tread-Easy Shoe Store and the Seranton Talk Store, both operated by Joseph Farber, had been totally demolished in the fire.

Joseph Farber had operated the Seranton Talk, a chain store specializing in jewelry, for several years. He purchased the shoe store only last Summer, however.

The fire is the worst catastrophe in the history of Carbondale, its mayor told newsmen yesterday.

From 4:25 a.m., when the first alarm was turned in, until 7 p.m. yesterday, more than 200 firemen from three counties fought against towering odds to stifle the mounting inferno which had once been the city's most prosperous business section.

Last night only mountains of ashes, smoldering timber and flooded store interiors remained. Scores of apartment dwellers had been driven from their homes in the sub-zero, early morning temperatures.

None of their personal belongings were saved, observers said. Many of those whose apartments were destroyed by the fire were forced to flee the scene dressed only in pajamas or bathrobes.

Emergency quarters were set up for the homeless in a teen-age center which had not been hit by the fire. Disaster crews from public service organizations handed out clothing and doled out food and coffee to men and women huddled in groups in the center.

The Carbondale holocaust is believed to have its start in the Nolan Clothing Store, 51 Salem Ave. The first firemen who arrived on the scene after the alarm was turned in said the blaze "seemed to be confined" to the rear of the clothing store at 4:30 a.m.

Within half an hour, a fierce north wind had fanned the flames to the rear roofs of adjoining buildings. As firefighting crews poured water on nearby structures to prevent spread of the flames, other firemen raced through the buildings waking residents and telling them to get out.

Government To Appeal Perjury Case

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (P)—The government announced today it will press its fight to bring Owen Lattimore to trial on a charge that he lied when he told a Senate committee he never had been a follower of the Communist line or a promoter of Red activities.

U.S. Atty. Leo A. Rover said he will ask the U.S. Court of Appeals to reverse a decision by Judge Luther W. Youngdahl dismissing that key count against the 34-year-old Far Eastern affairs specialist.

Youngdahl threw the charge out Jan. 18, saying it was vague and obscure. He said that to require Lattimore to stand trial on the charge would "make a sham" of the Sixth Amendment, which provides that "the accused shall enjoy the right . . . to be informed of the nature and the cause of the accusation."

In announcing the Justice Department's intention to appeal, Rover did not renew his side battle with Youngdahl which began last fall when the prosecutor accused the judge of having "a fixed personal bias and prejudice" in favor of Lattimore and demanded that he disqualify himself from the case.

Army Discharge Granted Belsky

WALTHAM, Mass., Feb. 4 (P)—Pfc. Marvin Belsky, a Bronx, N. Y., doctor for whom Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) demanded a dishonorable discharge, was released today by the Army "under honorable conditions." He had been serving in the out-patient department at Murphy Army Hospital.

An Army statement described the document separating him from active service as "a general discharge."

Belsky became the center of a row between McCarthy and Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens after the doctor refused, on grounds of possible self-incrimination, to answer questions about communism before the subcommittee McCarthy headed in the last Congress.

Stevens wrote McCarthy asking him to submit before Belsky's term of active service ended today "any evidence or information upon which evidence can be developed with reference to any alleged subversive conduct on the part of Belsky."

Leader To Seek Increases In Both Unemployment Benefits And Payroll Taxes In Special Message To Legislature

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4 (P)—A source close to Gov. George M. Leader said today he will press for increases in both jobless benefits and payroll taxes in a special message to Legislature next week.

The spokesman, who asked not to be identified, said his plan will suggest that maximum compensation go up from $30 a week to $35 and the number of compensable weeks be boosted from 26 to 30.

At the same time, employer contribution rates would range from 1 per cent of their payroll to 2.7 per cent, higher percentages applying to firms with a greater labor turnover.

The present range of payroll taxes runs from one-half of one per cent to 2.7 per cent.

The figures were part of an agreement reached among John Torquato, labor and industry secretary; Allen Sulowce, director of the Employment Security Bureau, and representatives of the AFL, CIO, United Mine Workers and the railroad brotherhoods.

The source also said Leader will ask the 1955 Legislature to remove the so-called peril point clause from the unemployment compensation law.

This clause provides that maximum weekly jobless benefits are reduced from $30 a week to $20 and payroll taxes paid by employers automatically go up to the 2.7 per cent ceiling. These employer contributions now average 1.2 per cent.

Operation of the peril point formula was barely averted last Dec. 31. Only advance tax payments by employers prevented it. But another formula designed to safeguard the fund went into operation.

It resulted in employers, for the current quarter, paying higher payroll taxes.

The law provides that when the Unemployment Compensation Fund is financially healthy employers shall pay a sliding scale of taxes on their payrolls. The scale runs from .5 per cent to 2.7 per cent. The less the labor turnover the less the rate.

But when the fund falls under 20 million dollars as it did last Dec. 31 in dropping to 391 millions, then the scale of employer contributions for the next quarter runs from 6 per cent to 2.7 per cent. Even without Leader's proposal becoming law, employer contributions would jump from 88 million paid last year to 118 millions this year under the new formula.

An innovation to be asked by Leader deals with computing a worker's weekly earnings for jobless benefits purposes.

At present, only his actual pay is used as a base. The new bill would provide that a worker's daily wage, multiplied by five (for a five-day week), will be used as the base.

This is designed to aid coal miners who have been working only two or three days a week.

U. S. Opposes Formosa Talks Outside U. N.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (P)—The United States notified Britain, India and other interested parties today that it opposes calling a full dress international conference outside the United Nations to negotiate a Formosa cease-fire with the Chinese Communists.

The move was made informally and somewhat indirectly by diplomats felt that persons like India's Prime Minister Nehru and Britain's Anthony Eden, being familiar with the ways of diplomacy, would get the point.

Since Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai turned down yesterday an invitation to send representatives to the U. N. Security Council to discuss the island war along the China coast, peace-seekers have been reported exploring all kinds of alternative moves. The search has centered in London, where British Commonwealth Prime Ministers are meeting, and at United Nations headquarters in New York.

Today press officer Henry Sydam was asked to explain "what kind of floating" he was talking about.

Sydam then made a second comment, which had been prepared in consultation with department officials.

"As press officer of the U. S. delegation at Geneva (the conference last spring which made peace in Indochina)," Sydam said, "I sat for several weeks and heard Chou En-lai assail the moral authority of the United Nations in the most intemperate and arrogant language, and I find it difficult to imagine that anyone who participated in that experience would wish to repeat it."

Asked whether this ruled out "another Geneva," Sydam said he thought what he said was "fairly explicit" and that he could not make any further comment.

The significance of the statement lay in the fact that of several possibilities for further cease-fire efforts reported under discussion at London, most attention has centered on a conference outside the United Nations. Chou's statement last night ruled out Red Chinese acceptance of any invitation to sit in on U. N. Security Council talks unless the Council adopted a resolution denouncing the United States Formosa policy and unless it ousted Nationalist China. Both conditions are impossible from the point of view of the United States and countries friendly to it.

Sydam said Nehru and U. S. Ambassador Winthrop Aldrich met in London yesterday for "a general discussion of the situation in the Far East" lasting about 30 minutes. Sydam declined to say whether a possible Far East conference was a topic of the meeting. It was understood, however, that Nehru made no proposals for a new approach to the Formosa problem.

On Capitol Hill, Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, opposed a conference outside the U. N. or any attempt at mediation by Nehru. He said Nehru has "already stated his position on ultimate passage of Formosa into Communist hands."

Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said in a Senate speech that diplomats should not "retreat" from President Eisenhower's stand in defense of Formosa.

Pakistan Independent

LONDON, Feb. 4 (P)—Pakistan announced today it is forsaking its dominant status and becoming an independent republic within the British commonwealth of nations.

These reports apparently stemmed from a news conference yesterday at which a Defense Ministry spokesman said the Nationalist garrison on the Tachens would "fight to the death if attacked."

Authorities said this statement carried no implication of any high policy decision to reject the American offer of U. S. 7th Fleet help in an evacuation.

Nine Soldiers Overpower Two Guards, Escape

FT. LEWIS, Wash., Feb. 4 (P)—Nine imprisoned soldiers overpowered two guards and escaped today from a stockade annex at this military post.

They were armed with a service revolver and a clip of ammunition seized from one of the guards.

The fugitives, all privates, made their break as they were being taken from a cell block to go out on a work detail.

The escape was not discovered until 30 minutes later when the two guards were heard banging on the door of a solitary confinement cell into which they had been shoved. They were not harmed.

National Assembly Refuses Premier Confidence Vote

PARIS, Saturday, Feb. 5 (P)—Premier Pierre Mendes-France, who had juggled votes masterfully in a successful bout for power for 7½ months, was thrown out of office early today.

The French National Assembly finally refused him its confidence on his North African policy but his defeat actually resulted from an accumulation of rankled feelings in Parliament.

The official vote was 319-273.

The 47-year-old Premier, whose audacious political tactics had gained him the enmity of a growing circle of political leaders, headed the 20th government since the World War II liberation of Paris.

Pierre Mendes-France ousted as premier

His downfall at home came after he had won wide popularity abroad on a visit to President Eisenhower and a speech to the United Nations in New York in November.

In office just two weeks short of eight months, Mendes-France left two monuments to his rule—an uneasy armistice in Indochina and the still unratified Paris pact for the rearmament of West Germany. The pact replaced the ill-fated European Defense Community he was accused of killing earlier.

The vote on a question of confidence which cost him his office came after a three-day debate on North African policies. In three previous debates on North Africa in his administration, Mendes-France won out.

He lost today not only because he had negotiated with independence-seeking Tunisian nationalists, arousing the fears of French colonialists in North Africa, but also because of a generally disgruntled feeling in the Assembly over many issues. Among the disgruntled were the wine-growers, displeased over the Premier's milk vs. champagne campaign, the old friends of EDC, and many who feared the effect of the Premier's economic program to which he now was turning.

He had not got around to spelling out this program—which was his chief interest—but in the past he has advocated a program of austerity, of higher taxes, of cracking down on speculators, and of weeding out high cost, inefficient industries.

The government's fate was sealed Thursday when Rene Mayer, a former premier and Radical Socialist, defected and thus split the Premier's own party.

A number of DeGaulle's, who had rallied to the government's support in past battles, also failed him.

In his final speech to the Assembly, Mendes-France had warned that his decision was "the most serious that has been taken in months, perhaps years" and that on it "perhaps rests the future of France."

His defeat, he said, would be interpreted abroad "as an abandonment by France of its initiative."

He outlined what he said were only two possible policies in North Africa—"the policy of reform and of progress" or the policy of "repression and force."

He bitterly accused the Catholic Popular Republicans of supporting a policy of local autonomy for Tunisia when they were in office and of preparing to knife him now for carrying out the same kind of policy.

Appeals For Revival

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (P)—The government served notice today that it is appealing directly to the Supreme Court for revival of its antitrust action against the E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company, members of the Du Pont family.

Recently, Larry Puck, 55, was removed as producer of Godfrey's Wednesday night show after Puck's engagement to singer Marion Marlowe of the show was disclosed.

CBS at the time denied that the engagement had anything to do with the action. Puck was retained as producer of Godfrey's Monday night "Talent Scouts" show.

In October 1953 Godfrey fired singer Julius La Rosa, who was courting Dorothy McGuire of the McGuire sisters.

Godfrey said the dismissal was caused by La Rosa's loss of "what for lack of a better word I call humility."

Sun Brings Relief From Cold Wave

THAT WARM SUN was a welcome sight yesterday following three days of frigid temperatures around the Stroudsburg area. It not only brought relief from the cold wave but helped clear the roads of ice and snow.

The temperature rose 37 degrees in the boroughs from 8 a. m. to early afternoon. Weather observer Pierre Lake reported it was one below zero at 8 a. m. and up to 36 degrees above around noon. The departure of the sun saw the mercury drop last night to 15 above.

It was also a mild, sunny day in the mountain area, according to observer Harry Greene at High Point, Mount Pocono.

Greene announced the low in that sector as three above at 5 a. m. and the high was 28 degrees at 4 p. m. His reading last night showed 15 with moderate winds at 10 miles an hour.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

One of winter's biggest storms swept slowly eastward from the Great Plains Friday, dumping a paralyzing blanket of snow or sleet across western sections of the Midwest.

A sub-zero cold wave still gripped parts of the Northeast, although it moderated a little.

The storm unloaded up to 18 inches of snow in parts of Wyoming, 14 inches in northeast Kansas and 11 inches in southern Iowa.

Schools closed in parts of Iowa and Nebraska. Drifting snow forced one-way traffic in some places and a sheath of ice made highway travel treacherous along the southern boundary of the snow belt.

The snowstorm was moving slowly eastward and much of the Midwest braced for a heavy fall.

Drifts grew three feet high in Iowa and four feet high in Kansas.

President Given Special Golf Balls

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (P)—President Eisenhower today received a supply of "souped up" golf balls which the donor said will travel 30 to 40 yards farther than regulation balls.

The balls were left at the White House by retired Air Force Col. Robert W. Kenworthy of New York, who told newsmen he makes them himself for distribution to friends in the armed services.

As for the formula, Kenworthy only would say he has learned "how to control the compression."

Shenandoah Business Block Destroyed In Costly Blaze

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Feb. 4 (P)—Two spectacular early morning fires, fanned by brisk winds in sub-zero temperatures, today turned block-long portions in the business districts of two anthracite towns into smoldering ruins.

The fires—disastrously alike in many ways—destroyed much of the center of Shenandoah and of Carbondale, 80 miles apart in eastern Pennsylvania's hard coal regions.

Churchill Warns Red China To Keep Hands Off Islands

LONDON, Feb. 4 (P)—Prime Minister Churchill's government warned Red China today that invasion of the Nationalist-held coastal islands, including the threatened Tachens, Matsuo and Quemoy, would endanger world peace.

Foreign Secretary Sir Anthony Eden made this declaration as Churchill and most British Commonwealth leaders reacted in shock and angry disappointment at Premier Chou En-lai's boycott of the proposed Security Council cease-fire talks.

The Prime Ministers of the globe-girdling Commonwealth, meeting in London, abruptly wrote off all hopes of getting a quick truce through the Security Council.

Diplomatic informants said Churchill and the others agreed after a day-long series of crisis conferences that patient, secret diplomacy is now the only way to ease the dangerous tension in Formosa Strait.

But the informants said no new approaches to Peiping appear immediately in the offing. After a special Churchill Cabinet meeting, the consensus in official British circles was:

"We don't intend to chase the Chinese Communists after this Security Council affair."

The U. N. peace bid had largely been engineered by the British. Eden told the House of Commons—in a significantly timed written reply to a laborite question—that the offshore islands "undoubtedly form part of the territory of the People's Communist Republic of China." But he added:

"Any attempt by the government of the People's Republic of China, however, to assert its authority over these islands by force . . . would endanger peace and security which is properly a matter of international concern."

Eden reiterated the British view that the legal ownership of Chiang's main base islands—the U. S.-protected Formosa-Pescadores group—must be settled later by international agreement.

Club Admits Negro

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (P)—The National Press Club today elected its first Negro member, Louis R. Lautier of Atlanta, Ga. by a vote of 377-281.

The subcommittee noted that he has a prior engagement Monday before a New York federal grand jury and said it would defer its questioning until later if Matusow is unable to keep both dates.

The grand jury apparently wants to talk to Matusow about an affidavit he signed Monday, swearing that he gave false testimony at the trial of 13 Communist leaders who were convicted in New York of conspiracy.

THE INSIDE OF THE WORLD

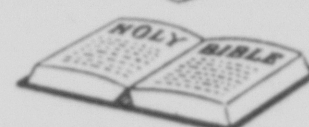

Continents, oceans and international boundaries are the outside of our world. And the constant folly of man has been his implicit belief that he could improve his world by spanning the continents, hopping the oceans, and juggling the boundaries of nations.

To improve our world we must change the inside of that world. For the globe is full of people—imperfect people. And all of the evil that threatens to engulf our world has its roots deep in the lives of individuals.

The one great hope of the world is to find a way to change the lives of individuals. Did we say find? We're forgetting that we found the way centuries ago in the truth which Jesus Christ revealed. The one great hope of the world is to follow the way our Saviour gave us.

With bombs that can change the outside of the world, and churches that can change the inside—which shall we use?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What Price Safety?

The frightful toll of accidents in the United States last year comes to 91,000 killed and 9,200,000 injured, according to the annual report of the National Safety Council.

Of this total, 36,300 lost their lives in traffic accidents, lowest total since 1950 but still an awful arraignment of our national inability to achieve safety on our highways.

These past few days, snow and ice on the highways and streets have resulted in a number of deaths and injuries, as drivers stubbornly refuse to admit that winter conditions dictate slower speeds and more careful handling of motor vehicles.

At the same time we read that in the month of January just past, The Big Three of the automobile industry rolled out 634,287 passenger cars alone from their factories, biggest January production in history with eleven months of 1955 still to go.

What these additional millions of vehicles added to an already astronomical total in the United States will mean to the safety record, only time can tell.

But one thing is sure. These cars and trucks and buses joining the already overcrowded traffic arteries will not mean any improvement in the safety record, but probably an increase if history of past years is to be repeated.

What price safety, anyway?

Are we so determined to commit suicide and murder by motor vehicle that we must obstinately refuse to drive with proper consideration for others and for the particular conditions of streets and highways? Or must there come a time when adequate enforcement by every agency involved will make death on the road a crime as evil as premeditated murder and similarly punishable.

"Windfall" Boys Win

The U. S. Tax Court has ruled against the government in its test case to recover millions in taxes from the windfall profits brought to light in the federal housing scandals.

Whether Uncle Sam will be able to collect huge sums in taxes, estimated everywhere from $75 million to $750 million, now is extremely problematical.

What happened was this: The government took 11 stockholders of 27 overlapping housing corporations to court. This outfit, like all the others, had federally-insured mortgages that far exceeded the cost of construction. It pocketed the difference as pure profit and paid tax on it as long-term capital gains at the rate of 25 per cent. The government contended the stockholders should have been taxed for the windfalls on the basis of regular income. That tax bite would have been 75 per cent.

The 16-judge court held unanimously that the defendants paid their taxes legally in the years involved, 1948 and 1949, and pointed out that the loophole in the law that allowed this whopping windfall was not plugged up until 1954.

The law is the law, and we do not propose to argue with its administration. But we do contend, as we have all along, that the Tax Court ruling only serves to emphasize that administration of the federal housing program in those postwar years was appallingly loose and lax, always bordering on outright fraud and in many cases crossing the border.

The Tax Court's ruling does not have to be final. It can be appealed to higher Federal Courts and to the Supreme Court itself.

If there is any basis for such an appeal, we are taking it for granted that our government will continue its fight. Not to do so would be to be as guilty of loose and lax conduct of office as the old setup in which the abuses occurred.

George Sokolsky Says . .

Serge Rubinstein's Environment Included Life In The Shadow Of Rasputin's Power

Rasputin was a blackmailer who lived on the bounty of ladies of the Czar's court who regarded the monk as having supernatural powers. The atmosphere that surrounded Rasputin was unwholesome and in the midst of it was Serge Rubinstein's father, who was Rasputin's manager and financial agent.

If it can be said that any one person brought about the downfall of Russian Czarism, it was Rasputin, the monk, Prince Felix Yusupov, in a last effort to save Russia, killed the charlatan and was regarded as a hero among his fellow nobles. Rubinstein escaped to England with his family, among whom was Serge, then a boy of nine or ten years of age. How much of his own wealth and Rasputin's the elder Rubinstein took with him cannot be known, but he was a man of considerable means who was able to give his children every advantage.

What this complex and degenerate environment did to Serge as a child, only a psychiatrist could fathom, but of this we can be sure: At the dinner table in his father's house the conversation must have been about intrigue and money, about the power of money, about how easy it is to reach the highest places by the use of money, of corruption and schemes and tricks. A smart child could not but have absorbed all this and been impressed by it.

Serge received an excellent education in England and went to France, from which he was expelled because his speculations were endangering the value of the franc. He came to the Far East where he manipulated currencies and operated in various enterprises, all of which he damaged but out of which he made a fortune. He smuggled his money out of Japan, which no one else managed to do, by using two beautiful women as aids. My memory holds the impression that it was as skillful an enterprise as has been known in the East of Asia, where many operators have manipulated many oblique transactions.

Two facts stand out in Serge Rubinstein's life in the United States: One, he was able to buy beautiful women to be his companions and he was able to buy the services of important lawyers to do his jobs, but he never could win friendship, respect or love. He was always an outsider. He could dine in the best restaurants, but despite his many millions, he was not invited to the best homes. The second fact is that although he had served a term in prison as a draft-dodger, there were many American girls who were willing to accept his attentions and to be seen with him. One would have imagined that any American girl would have been ashamed to be seen with him. Many were not ashamed. As one girl said: Serge could take her to the places where any girl would like to be seen. Perhaps that is so, but why would an American girl want to be seen with a draft-dodger?

It is an interesting phenomenon because back in World War I, it was considered a disgrace, even for an American of German descent, to be a draft-dodger. Today nothing seems to be disgraceful.

Serge Rubinstein, someone said after he was killed, thought that he was competing with Rubirosa and Aly Khan for the reputation of being master of ladies. And the comment was that Serge was not up to it. What is there to be up to? What qualities do such men possess that one needs to hold them up as figures to emulate?

It is not novel that some men live by their wits and their skill in manipulating the weaknesses of vain and vainglorious women. It is novel that society is not ashamed of them and that they are glorified as figures whose names our children should know.

Serge Rubinstein was a buccaneer but without the heroism even of a pirate. He bought beautiful surroundings but he could not make himself beautiful and this he undoubtedly knew, for he fought hard to be accepted by others than those whom he paid off and he never found the satisfaction of knowing that it was for himself and not for his money that he was wanted. He was killed and there was little more than a perfunctory regret at his passing.

The Once Over

—By H. I. Phillips

"Kid" Sherman Wearing Purple Trunks: Cauliflower ears can now figure in interstate commerce. A battered nose, while obtained from Rocky Marciano, can come under the Sherman Act. The Supreme Court, in showing up in gym costume, held a special sports session and announced decisions chiefly notable for the fact the justices showed no aversion whatever to TV wrestling. Under one decision book-busting becomes susceptible to anti-trust laws. The high court then switched to "the show must go on" mood and allowed a speaking role in the American theater to Mr. Sherman. It held that there can be Sherman Act monopolies there, other than the Victor Borge one-man piano show and Sharkey the Seal.

Millions who have been watching boxing on TV knew punches were landing everywhere except on the contestants but they hardly expected them to land inside the U. S. Supreme Court. Although they realized from all the clinching that there was plenty of "interlocking." One thing is clear: The justices came out fighting. And from now on our court rooms will take on something of the aroma of resin, wet leather and liniments as litigation begins. Stillman's Gym is reported full of lawyers, all skipping rope in a determination to be in the pink for whatever may come, and especially prepared for the announcement: "The contestant in the white trunks is Attorney Jerome X. Jazbo." (Along Jacobs Beach, New York feeling runs high, with some sharp demands that the Supreme Court be secured by Congress.) Lower court jurists had nervously held that neither the fight game nor the theater world came under the Sherman Act. This may mean these jurists will lose their fight ratings and have to start all over in Golden Gloves contests.

The theater ruling is directed chiefly at big theater chains, but Broadway and Hollywood are wondering if it may not also take in booking officers, agents, movie companies and perhaps Jackie Gleason, who, by the latest financial page reports, seems to have established himself as bigger than Standard Oil which was once fined $40,000,000 under the Sherman Act. (Even Lindy and Sardi's may be vulnerable, since they often seem to have all the ham supply.) Certainly, the modern musical show is a combination in restraint of comedians or belly-laughs. And who can say TV has not bottled up all the ballet dancers? The court's failure to mention wrestling panels baffles us, also. (Haven't the jurists been tuning into these bouts or can it be they like 'em?) There is sharp action ahead, however, in the matter of boxing and theaters. We think the courts should have somebody counting at the knockdowns and that all the judges should come in at an agreed weight.

Justices Frankfurter and Minton dissented in the boxing decision, holding that a pug carrying a sweater, shorts and gloves from Chicago to Pittsburgh is not an interstate carrier. They seem to overlook the fact he may also be carrying the script. These two Justices are the heroes of the promoters and many fighters, however. Madison Square Garden we hear, thinks Frankfurter is entitled to a rematch with Justice Warren, and we look for bronze statues of both Frankfurter and Minton in the Garden as well as those of Dempsey and Tunney. Theatergoers are not much concerned about theater ownership, but they wish some court would declare the ticket situation an operation in restraint of fair play, interstate justice, local square dealing and national horse sense.

New Conference Films To Aid Ike Popularity

Washington—The White House decision to allow President Eisenhower's news conference to be filmed for television and newsreels is having political repercussions. Republicans openly concede that it provides Mr. Eisenhower with a powerful means of enhancing not only his own popularity but that of the entire party as well.

Mr. Eisenhower is the first President whose weekly news conferences will be seen in millions of homes as well as reported in daily newspapers. The political advantage to the President will be especially helpful if Mr. Eisenhower decided to seek a second term. He will have a weekly forum to present his views to the voters.

Democrats are naturally unhappy about the development. They may begin demanding equal time from at least the television networks so that one of their own party spokesmen can reply to the President. This probably would come after the President has made his intentions clear about a second term. Until then, the political overtones of the filmed news conference are somewhat less than the public service of bringing the President's views on national and world problems to the greatest possible audience.

Diplomatic Puzzle—The Agriculture Department has succeeded in making the whole issue of naming agricultural attaches for foreign posts so confusing that the lack of clarity and concrete information on the subject seems almost deliberate. It has been more than six months since Agriculture took jurisdiction of 54 of these employees from the State Department.

However, to date, only five of them have been formally confirmed in their posts by Secretary Ezra Taft Benson. Security clearances and the like have held up all except those assigned to Pakistan, Italy, Japan, New Zealand and Singapore.

At least 11 of the original 54 are known to be still on State's payroll. Agriculture re-imposes State for their services but won't say what individuals are involved. Two of the appointments actually were announced officially only after sources which certainly were less than official gave out the news.

Apparently, the ouster of Wolf Ladejinsky as attache in Tokyo was only the most spectacular facet of a program on which the Agriculture department intends to give out only a modicum of information.

Clearing House—The Eisenhower administration has taken steps to prevent another public squabble between agencies about "security risk" questions like that which occurred over Ladejinsky.

The President has instructed the Justice department to serve as a sort of mediation center when two or more agencies differ on who is or isn't a risk.

Mr. Eisenhower actually took the action in the midst of the Ladejinsky row. Ladejinsky is the land reform expert fired by Agriculture Secretary Benson and later hired by Harold Stassen's Foreign Operations administration.

Now, Assistant Attorney General William F. Tompkins has the task of preventing such public differences. He will get agency heads together to work out an equitable solution.

However, the head of an agency will still have the final decision on who stays on the payroll. The administration has no plans to set up an appeals mechanism for employees who feel they have been unfairly treated.

Try and Stop Me

—By Bennet Cerf

Two successful businessmen, who hadn't seen each other since they were schoolmates, met one afternoon, and after the usual wistful reminiscences, one persuaded the other to try "pot luck" for dinner at his home. "Pot luck" wasn't very good that night. An uncooperative and bored wife served up some cold ham and a can of preserved peaches, then disappeared huffily toward her bedroom. The host gulped down his last bite of peach and boomed, "Well, Joe, now that you've broken bread at my house you'll have to ask me to dine at yours some time soon."

"Not a bad idea," agreed Joe sourly. "How about tonight?" A tycoon in the steel industry had a little run-in with the internal revenue department in which he finished a bad second. A keen student of American history, the big shot's comment when he emerged from the conference was, "If Patrick Henry had known what it would be like to have taxation with representation, he'd have kept his mouth shut!"

Robert S. Allen Reports

Wilson Has No Early Plans For Resigning

Inside the Pentagon—Those ever-recurring conjectures about Defense Secretary Wilson's leaving the Cabinet can be put to rest until June, anyway. He is personally arranging a big conference at Quantico, Va., of top officials and military leaders. President Eisenhower has promised to attend, as he did last year's meeting. General John Dahlquist, Chief of Army Field Forces, is due to become commander of the new Continental Army, but in the meanwhile he has set in motion a plan that is strikingly reminiscent of an organizational set-up which the army abandoned some years back. This was chiefs of branch; that is, Chief of Infantry Cavalry, Artillery, etc. Dahlquist has established three new sections on his staff—Chief of Infantry, Artillery and Armor. Each headed by a major general. The Pentagon claims to know nothing about the development, but insiders are conjecturing that this is the first step in a restoration of the old system. . . . General Matthew Ridgway is the only officer who has held the three top army posts—Chief of Staff, NATO Commander, and Far Eastern Commander.

Sparks—Unannounced reason for that mysterious trip to Europe by Senator Charles Potter (R., Mich.) is a secret mission for President Eisenhower. Potter, who lost both legs during the European fighting, will also visit the place where he was wounded by a mine. . . . Representative Sidney R. Yates (D., Ill.), who introduced a bill to construct an atomic power plant in Hiroshima, made an unpublicized talk for this proposal in the House. Yates disclosed that Atomic Commissioner Thomas Murray strongly favors the plan, and quotes him as follows: "A nuclear reactor in the land of the Rising Sun, built by Americans and out of American resources, would be a lasting monument to our technology and our good will. One of our reactors in Japan would go a very long way toward nullifying what has been lost at Dienbienuphu and Geneva."

Representative Jere Cooper (D., Tenn.), chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, which originates tax legislation, told that group recently:

"The President said in his recent message that he thought taxes could be cut next year," said Cooper. "I don't have to point out to you gentlemen that 1956 is an election year, and that the President and his party will be going to the people for another term. I contend that if taxes can be cut next year, they can be reduced this year, too."

Cooper's militant view immediately focused attention on Speaker Rayburn. He lost no time in making clear how he felt.

"As you know, I have been opposed to cutting taxes this year because of the precarious world situation and the unbalanced budget," began Rayburn. "But now that the President has decided to make a political issue of the matter I don't feel it is my responsibility to continue resisting a tax cut. As Jere well said, if taxes can be cut next year for election purposes, there is no reason they can't be cut this year for the benefit of taxpayers."

Representative Herman Eberhart (D., Pa.), veteran Ways and Means Committeeman, advised using strategy in doing that. "The smart thing to do," he pointed out, "is to include our tax cut in a package bill with the proposals recommended by the President. That's what the Republicans did last year, when they made him agree to $1,000,000,000 in excise cuts he did not favor. But in order to get the cuts he did want, he had to accept the excise reductions; it was either that or veto the package bill."

Floor leader John McCormack, Mass., strongly supported Eberhart's advice.

"If we put our plan through by itself," McCormack warned, "the President would be in a good position to veto it and that would be the end of it. We couldn't pass it over his head. But if we include our tax cut in a package bill, then he will have to accede to it."

Representative Wilbur Mills (D., Ark.), also a Ways and Means Committeeman, made another suggestion.

"If there is a concern about losing too much revenue this year," Mills pointed out, "we can counter that objection by making the cut effective beginning January 1, 1956. That will cut the ground from under any White House objection to this reduction, while at the same time making the record crystal clear that it is a Democratic measure."

On Broadway

—by Walter Winchell

The coldly clinical psychiatric estimate of murderers is that they are basically frustrated persons who are emotionally maladjusted. To the police, a homicide means intensive effort—as demonstrated by the painstaking probe of the Serge Rubinstein case. Over 600 people have been investigated and countless clues checked. Murder contains elements of macabre fascination to the public—and is a dramatic tragedy to newspapers. To professional killers, murder is a job. The brutal efficiency of the Rubinstein slaying suggests the work of professionals. Incredibly, such alleged humans maintain an almost scientifically detached attitude toward their "work."

Murder, Inc., irksomely, restricted homicides to those who interfered with the plunderworld's business or betrayed its code. They inaugurated kangaroo courts for negligent members. And they organized a murder school for young criminals—who received a weekly salary while being trained to kill. Murder, Inc. leaders seriously believed they were performing a supreme public service. They insisted they saved lives—by preventing gang wars.

Wealth, sensuality and beautiful women—the dramatic lures of the Rubinstein drama—have echoes among several predecessors: Notably, the Harry K. Thaw headline spurge. . . . Thaw's trial was covered by 80 reporters. One journalist wrote 600,000 words about the case. The N. Y. Times gave extensive coverage to it, although one of its execs once earnestly contended: "Other newspapers see murders as opportunities for sensationalism. When the Times give a great amount of space to such stories it turns out authentic sociological documents."

Incidentally, the N. Y. Times, a devotee of sociology, devoted more space to the lurid Hall-Mills murder case than tabloids.

The Devil weaves strange stories out of darkness—full of weird shadows. Wardens have frequently noted that killers are poshovers for sentimental ballads. Tears streamed down the faces of hardened Murder, Inc. gunmen when mothers visited them in jail. . . . You may recall Fred McManus, the 18-year-old "model boy," who liquidated 5 people in cold blood. After he was nabbed for this savage outburst, McManus severely reprimanded reporters for neglecting to remove their hats in the presence of a lady.

Following a visit from his parents, McManus bitterly complained to a newsman: "As usual, my mother treated me like I was a naughty little boy who had stolen an apple and had to stay behind a wire fence for punishment. She told me not to let my lying around the other prisoners make me rough and common like them. Why, the men in jail with me are my friends. I'm accepted here. For the first time in my life I feel I'm where I'm really wanted. Us prisoners feel the same about things. People on the outside have no use for us. I like the fellows in here and I think they like me."

Fire Causes Heavy Loss To Archie Ace Home, Snydersville

Two Companies Fight Blaze In Cold Weather

SNYDERSVILLE — Flames gutted the rear portion of the Archie Ace residence here early yesterday morning.

The fire was discovered by 1 a. m. by Mrs. Ace. It was apparently caused by an overheated pipe leading from the stoker heating system to the chimney.

George Kitchen, chief of the Blue Ridge Hook and Ladder Co. at Snydersville, said Mrs. Ace and a daughter were alone in the house at the time of the fire. Ace was at work.

Mrs. Ace woke her daughter and the two women groped their way through the smoke-filled house to safety on the outside. Kitchen said. Then they ran to the home of a neighbor who turned in the fire alarm.

Blue Ridge firemen were greatly hampered by below-zero temperatures, Kitchen said. Equipment and hose lines began to freeze up periodically, he reported.

Stroud Township's volunteer fire company was called to the scene by Kitchen. The two companies worked together with a systematic plan to hold the fire down and keep the flames away from the front part of the home, a two-floor building with a full attic.

Firemen from both companies threw water on the two sides of the house and the rear. Kitchen said, shutting the fire off. About 50 men from the two areas answered the alarm.

When Blue Ridge firemen got to the scene, Kitchen said, flames were visible all through the rear part of the house and fire was shooting from a large window in the attic.

The Blue Ridge company kept equipment at the scene until 6:45 yesterday morning, Kitchen said. Fire damage was confined to the back of the house, he said, but smoke and some water caused damages to the front portion.

No estimate of damages had been made last night, Kitchen said. Both building and contents were partially insured, however, he reported.

There was one casualty in the fire.

A 13-year-old dog died, Kitchen said. The dog had been a family pet for many years.

When the fire had been put out, Kitchen entered the building. He found the animal lying inside the home.

The pet had been overcome by smoke.

Male Deer Kills Top 1953 Figure

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Game Commission today reported that hunters killed more than 3,000 more antlered deer in 1954 than the year previous.

The total number of deer killed, however, was nearly 13,000 less than in 1953 because there was no special antlerless deer season last year.

In all, there were 40,915 deer killed in 1954 compared to a total of 53,636 killed in 1953.

At the same time the commission reported a 33 per cent increase in the kill of bears. During the past season 403 bears were killed, compared to 303 in 1953.

The total deer kill included animals taken during the special archery season in both years. In the bow and arrow season of 1954 there were 55 deer killed, while in 1953 there were 84 animals killed by the bow and arrow hunters.

The commission also reported that wild turkeys, once almost extinct in Pennsylvania, had more appeal for hunters this year. More than 16,000 turkeys were killed in the 1954 season, while there were 14,604 killed in 1953.

Board Suspends Liquor License

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4 (AP)—The State Liquor Control Board has suspended the license of Joseph Bend, Island View Inn, Greentown RD1, for 35 days effective Feb. 24.

Reason cited for the suspension was Sunday sales.

$2,910 Damage Results In Three-Truck Accident

THREE TRACTOR-TRAILER trucks were involved in an accident in front of the Pocono Diner, Tannersville, yesterday morning at 6:15. No one was injured. Mount Pocono State Police estimated the total damages at $2,910.

A truck, owned by Salvador Simonelli of Madison, N. J., and operated by Alanson Stark, 36, Gouldsboro, was traveling south on Route 611 when another trailer, owned by the Boyce Motor Lines of Canandaigua, N. Y., and operated by Michael Phillips, 39, Philadelphia, started to enter the highway.

Stark turned off the road to the right to avoid the trailer pulling out and skidded into the departing vehicle and another parked truck owned by the Boyce company. James Smith, of Philadelphia, operator of the parked truck, was in the diner at the time of the accident.

The parked vehicle was the most seriously damaged with the estimate placed at $1,600. The Stark-owned tractor-trailer's damages totaled $1,300. Slight damage of $10 was sustained by truck driven by Phillips.

'Good Citizen' Bills Offered

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—Senators proposed two bills today to help make good citizens out of wayward youngsters. They also offered another measure to bar unaccompanied teen-agers from crossing the nation's borders.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), one of the sponsors, said the border-crossing ban would help keep juveniles out of vice spots in Mexico.

Kefauver said Sens. Hennings (D-Mo) and Langer (R-ND) joined him in framing the measures. They were members of a special Senate Juvenile Delinquency Committee headed by former Sen. Hendrickson (R-NJ) in the last Congress.

An aide to Hennings said the bills probably would be introduced next week. He also said a decision will be made this month whether the subcommittee will be continued and proceed with other inquiries. The group has been continued to the end of February.

Besides the border-crossing ban, the other bills would:

1. Permit foster parents to claim income tax exemption for foster children, in effort to encourage families to take in homeless children. Kefauver said there is "an acute shortage of decent homes" available for such children who are or might become delinquent.

2. Allow release to state authorities of juveniles who also have violated federal law. Kefauver said this would permit delinquent boys or girls to be kept close to their own homes for effective rehabilitation.

Alaska-Hawaii Bill Drafted

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—Daring a possible presidential veto, House Democrats are considering sending President Eisenhower a bill to admit both Hawaii and Alaska to statehood.

The bill may hit the House floor later this month. It is the subject of current hearings before the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee.

Originally, separate statehood bills were planned for the two territories, but some influential Democrats suspect that the President would veto the Hawaii measure and veto the Alaska bill.

Fire Levels Beck Barn At Bushkill

BUSHKILL—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a barn on the farm of Mrs. Charles H. Beck, about a mile north of here on Route 209, last night.

Mrs. Beck said she discovered the fire at about 6:30 p. m. At that time flames had gained strong headway. She called the fire department here.

Bushkill firemen under Chief Lawrence DeFue found the 40 by 60 foot structure engulfed in flames when they arrived. They were successful in preventing nearby structures from being destroyed.

Listed by firemen as "a complete loss," the structure had recently had extensive repairs made to a slate roof. It contained a considerable amount of farm machinery and some baled hay.

Serviceman Grateful For Gifts

THE PROGRAM, "Christmas on the High Seas," has been an annual Red Cross project for many years. Through this project, appropriate gifts are placed aboard troop transports and other military conveyances for distribution on Christmas morning.

The Junior Women's Club this year donated 15 of these gifts valued not less than $1.50 each. After receiving a "Christmas on the High Seas" gift, one grateful serviceman wrote:

"Today was Christmas Day and it was a pretty lonely day for more than three thousand of us soldiers on our way to Japan and points further west. The most important part of today was the receiving of Christmas packages from yourself and many other Red Cross chapters across the United States. We were overjoyed to receive them, as for myself, I cried. The games, cigarettes, tobacco, stationery and many other items too numerous to mention, are still being raved about. The ship is just one madhouse of rejoicing."

"We will always be eternally thankful for what you have done and we want you to know the kindness is greatly appreciated. God Bless You, A Grateful Soldier."

Bloodmobile To Stop Here February 24

AFTER A MONTH without a visit from the Red Cross Bloodmobile, the February visit to be held Feb. 24 from 10 a. m. to 4 at the Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church takes on special importance.

LeRoy Mikels, county blood donor chairman, reported at last night's meeting of the Red Cross executive committee.

Under the new setup, blood is needed in a steady flow at the Blood Donor Bank since the whole blood can be kept a limited length of time. The local quota is 125 pints per visit.

Detlef A. Hansen, chapter chairman, presided at the meeting. Reports indicated a busy month, even without the bloodmobile visit. Cold weather brought transients to the office seeking help, local families in need of furniture and blankets and in one case a rug for the floor where two small children played.

In each case, the need was met. Mrs. Ida Kunkle, executive secretary, reported. There were 93 office interviews and five meal tickets issued. There were 16 cases during the month with 14 of those cases involving service men, veterans or their dependents.

Two cases were given home financial assistance, seven telegrams were sent and 11 long distance calls made on behalf of servicemen. The bulk of the activity lay in the 58 requests for aid or information which came to the office but which were not counted as cases.

In the fire at Tobyhanna, Mrs. Kunkle reported that the Red Cross had offered any assistance needed but that the Fire Company Auxiliary had already gone into action, serving hot coffee to the firemen and they had reported no further aid necessary.

The volunteers were also active during the month. Mrs. LeRoy Koehler reported, with 50 volunteers giving 508 hours of bloodmobile visit. Two volunteers gave four hours in administration duties.

The Gray Lady Service at the hospital required 40 volunteers for more than 468 hours; the Nurse's Aid service at the hospital totaled 61 hours for seven volunteers, and two motor service volunteers gave 54 hours with four trips involving 676 miles.

Following the regular meeting, Fred Rhodes, chairman of the 1955 Red Cross Membership and Fund Campaign, met with the committee to discuss details of the campaign which opens on March 1.

One of the first buildings to go was the Liberty Discount and Savings Bank at Church and Salem. Officials of the bank said last night, however, that cash and securities were stored in a fireproof vault in the bank.

Flames towered over the block; sparks spewed upward from the clothing store and the wind whipped chunks of flaming debris from the roof of the building, depositing them on the nearby A and P Supermarket.

many of the 50 homeless families. A businessmen's group offered to help feed the victims and the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Co. donated 10 tons of coal to help heat the canten.

Only a large brick brewery and a small electrical shop behind it still stood in Shenandoah's blackened block. Two small buildings also stood as survivors in Carbondale's fire block.

Authorities in both towns credited quick action by firemen and neighbors for the fact that there were no deaths or serious injuries. In Carbondale, Mrs. Sophie W. Farnham, 52, led six persons to safety. She was barefooted and wore only night clothing. Awakened by the smoke, Mrs. Farnham aroused her neighbors and helped them climb across the roof of their burning building to the roof of an adjoining one. On her way, she cried out for help, arousing dozens of other persons.

Firemen, responding to the alarm, rescued Peter Petrou, an invalid, and his wife from an apartment.

Most seriously injured in the Shenandoah fire was fireman Zigmond Kucmarak, who suffered a compound skull fracture when hit by falling glass. Other firemen were overcome by smoke.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

It's something when a temperature of 20 degrees begins to seem like balmy summer weather. There's one thing about these cold snaps—you really appreciate it when they stop.

Contrast is a wonderful thing. Take the average housewife. As a rule she feels pretty harassed with meals and dishes and beds and laundry and dust in an ever-recurring cycle that never, never ends. But just let one of the children get sick and add the worry and the running up and downstairs with medicine and comfort and the broken night's sleep and an ordinary day begins to seem like a picnic.

Ordinarily, too, I think I'm the busy thing with the social page and the radio and the meetings and the family. But after trying to get ready for a two-weeks vacation—trying to sandwich in extra tape recordings—the weddings and extra stories I'd already promised to write—advance menus and household supplies—enough clean clothes to last the family over the hump—

Well, I begin to wonder what I used to do with myself all day. It's a good thing there's only another week of this, or instead of a vacation I'd be taking a rest cure some place.

It's all a matter of vanity, I suppose—all this business of thinking we're so indispensable. If we broke a leg tomorrow, the world would get along perfectly well without us. And with this melting and freezing on the sidewalks, we're apt to do just that.

Although her theme is serious, Mrs. Heydrick is noted as a public spirit who injects a great deal of humor and sly wit into her remarks. She is promotional secretary of the Philadelphia Council of Churches and has been active in "Family Relationships" for 30 years. She is a member of the board of directors of Crime Prevention Association and in 1950 was named "Woman of the Year" by the Quota Club of Philadelphia.

The program has been arranged by the public affairs department of the club with Mrs. Altoemore and Mrs. Ella Mills as chairmen.

Hostesses for the night are Mrs. William Gould, Mrs. LeRoy Shupp, Mrs. Hayden Murphy, Mrs. Arlington Martin, Mrs. Carrie Felker, Mrs. Claude Motts, Mrs. William High, Mrs. Clair Sniffen, Mrs. Boyd Titus, Mrs. Lauffer Stephens, Mrs. Neal Stelgerwalt, Mrs. Stanley Harlan, Mrs. Alta Kemmerer, Mrs. Willard Kresge, Mrs. Harley Bond, Mrs. Charles Hendry, Mrs. John Rinker, and Mrs. Walter Singer. GOP Women Yoke Lincoln, Valentines

The Monroe Council of Republican Women will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, at 2:15, in the Penn-Stroud. Politics will be covered by a report from Mrs. Alphonse Meyers, legislative chairman, taken from the legislative letter sent from the state headquarters of Republican Women. Mrs. John Shotwell, congressional chairman, will give the high lights from the February Congressional Bulletin from Harrisburg. Mrs. Clifford Heller will give an entertaining talk on the story of valentines with their background and origin with samples of the sentimental verses on some of the first ones designed. She will also include a few of the old coins.

The meeting will conclude with a review of Irving Stone's book: "Love Is Eternal," given by Gerald Snyder. He is head of the English department in the Belvidere High School, a graduate of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, was a law student at Temple University and is a veteran of World War Two. Mr. Snyder has made an extensive study of Lincoln and his biographies and will depict the character of Mary Todd and our former Emancipator president from the viewpoint of the author, Irving Stone, who saw their relationship as a spiritual and romantic attachment that defied the clash of their temperaments and survived as an enduring love. This revealing book is now in second place on the best seller list.

The hostess chairman is Mrs. T. C. Terrill, assisted by Mrs. John Wagner, Mrs. George H. Green, Mrs. Fannie Kintner, Mrs. Gerald Snyder and Mrs. Robert Haight. Friends of members are cordially invited. The meeting will start promptly at 2:15. The executive board will meet at 1:15.

West End Fire Co. Auxiliary Gives $1555

Brodheads—Filing of the late financial report of 1954 at the December meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the West End Fire Company indicated that this community service project is going all out to make this company and its environments one of the best in the county.

Completion of the second story dining hall and kitchen is noted by their addition of all new equipment and interior decorations.

Mrs. Lizzie Fetherman, treasurer of the auxiliary, recently presented the company with its final check for the past twelve months in the amount of $1555.00, said amount designated for new truck tires and the building fund.

Public penny suppers on the third Saturday of each month will continue again this year, reported Mrs. Hannah Kresge, president, now serving her tenth consecutive year as head of these West End women.

Other activities of the auxiliary include refreshment catering at the dances sponsored by the Fire Department on alternate Saturday nights.

Vice president Gladys Serfass reserved two banquet dates in February for the Grundslow Lodge No. 6, and the Monroe County Republican Club.

The next meeting of the auxiliary, according to Mrs. Mary Hoffman and Mrs. Aida Werkheiser, secretaries, will be the night of Washington's Birthday.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The bride's table featured a three-tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom which had been baked by Mrs. H. W. Tebbis, aunt of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a cocoa brown dress with black accessories, and the wedding was attended by the family and friends.

THE Wyckoff SHOPPER

Time marches on . . . and dimes continue to march into our store in a variety of interesting and unusual designs as was come to the final day of Tom Waring's March of Dimes Contest benefiting the Polio fund.

The first entry, as I recall, was a beautiful belt designed by Earl Gardner and displayed in our front window, along with one Mr. Waring himself had created. It was a real work of art, with the shiny silver coins set into a pattern that featured many bright colors and forms. It very carefully followed the contest stipulation that no coin be defaced . . . and, of course, all coins go into the March of Dimes fund after the judging.

Blanche Mackey of our Gift Wrap Center has been acting as custodian of the various entries, and tells me that the originality displayed is most commendable. Our only regret is that we haven't three or four times as many contestants. One youngster—Tommy Kaufman—has made several pictures, accompanied by verse, in which dimes are used. In one case a dollar bill and some coins form a bouquet.

Fourteen year old Barbara Treble of 116 Jane Street, Stroudsburg, entered a black corduroy collar studded with gleaming March of Dimes coins, and Mary E. Park of Shawnee has created both a belt and a string ribbon collar in which a generous coin contribution has been made.

Shortly after the March of Dimes began this year, Miss Nellie Burd of Delaware Water Gap received an unusual picture which is also entered in the contest. In this study of a woman's head, the artist has used dimes for earrings, necklace and other adornment.

When I see what others have done to "dress up" their March of Dimes contributions, I regret that I didn't also dream up something original. There's no doubt about it, coins are as decorative as emeralds . . . and just about as precious, when you consider how far they can march in the battle against a dread disease. The contest deadline is tonight . . . so if you can visualize a wastepaper basket decorated with coins . . . dime sequins on an evening stole . . . or even a "dime-and" ring, you may still get into the act. Just remember not to deface the coins—paste them, attach them through slushings or stitches, but don't mutilate them. They're marching, remember . . . and the fight against Polio is a fierce one.

In yesterday's column we mentioned a contest being sponsored by Doubleday & Company in behalf of the newly published 1955 edition of the Thorndike-Barnhart dictionary. Through the omission of a printed line, we find we have baffled several would-be contestants . . . so, here are the requirements again: you are asked to write a sentence of not more than 50 words containing at least five of the six following: astronaut . . . colorcast . . . dowse . . . gerontology . . . smaze . . . and Earl Warren.

And please don't call me to say I've listed SEVEN words. Doub

Pardon Board May Adopt Strict Policy

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen today hinted the new state pardons board may adopt a stricter policy toward recommending commutations or pardons of convicts to the governor.

Cohen said the board "should not be used to supplement the governor's opinion and impose on the governor the responsibility of being a sentencing judge."

Cohen, Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman and James A. Finnegan, Commonwealth secretary, are the other new members of the board. They will meet with incumbent William S. Livengood, secretary of internal affairs, for their first board meeting, Feb. 15-16.

Livengood will be replaced on the board in May when Secretary-elect of Internal Affairs Genevieve Blatt takes office.

"We haven't formulated any definite plan nor do we have any fixed objectives," Cohen said in reference to the coming board meeting.

The Pardons Board, under state law, may only recommend pardons or commutations for prisoners. Final action in both cases will rest with Gov. George M. Leader.

Wheat Crops Believed Hurt By Cold Wave

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4 (AP)—State farm experts said today that the freezing weather of the past week may have seriously damaged the winter wheat crops in southeastern Pennsylvania counties.

"There will undoubtedly be some damage," said D. O. Boster, chief statistician of the Agriculture Department, "but we will be unable to determine how extensive it is until the crop begins to grow this spring."

Elsewhere in the Commonwealth winter wheat crops, which are planted in the fall and harvested in the early summer, have been protected from the freezing weather by heavy blankets of snow.

But in the southeastern counties, Boster said, the snow has been blown away from fields by strong winds and piled into drifts. The exposed fields leave seeds lying close to the surface in danger. The Agriculture Department said it has no records of prolonged freezing conditions and resulting crop damages.

However, this spring, the department said, if there is a noticeable drop in wheat production without other factors, such as drought, entering into the picture, the blame will fall on the severe weather this month.

Canada's herds of caribou are being cut down by wolves, hunters, disease and scarcity of forage faster than nature can replace the losses.

From the time that historical character, Peter Zenger defied his British politicians and established a newspaper dedicated to freedom of speech, newspapers have been the backbone of public utterances in printed form; whether it be a controversial editorial, the news of the day or the ADVERTISING MESSAGES OF BUSINESS.

And, despite the mass appeal of other media of communication which has developed from then to now, newspapers today have the greatest circulation in all history; the greatest mass readership from millions upon millions of people who spend more millions of dollars for newspapers than for any other means of communication.

RILEY

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

ANYONE WHO believes that Tuesday's Stroudsburg-Catasauqua basketball game was the best officiated game he ever saw will find this scribe in complete agreement. Steve Honzo and Mike Kuba did a brilliant job and helped to make the game enjoyable to winner and loser alike. Did you ever know that fewer fouls are called in well officiated games than in ones that rage out of control of officials? But I believe more minor infractions are revealed by the good referee.

Honzo worked the Duquesne-Niagara tussle in Buffalo last Monday and handled the Cincinnati-Seton Hall battle in Madison Square Garden Thursday night. Today the Palmerston native has the Navy-Pitt struggle at Annapolis. Honzo worked his last National Basketball Association game on Wednesday, December 29. The reason for his departure from the pros is the fact that the Ivy League doesn't like its officials mixing both games and since he has a truly good collegiate schedule Steve will stick with the amateur game—at least for the balance of this season.

If anyone thought our note about the poverty stricken West End entry in the Pocono Mountains Basketball League was a bunch of baloney the other day, here's a new yarn: Each member of the West End team had to chip in $1.10 on Thursday and the Johnson's Diner players were taxed 50 cents to pay the officials. Even then the officials worked the contest for a cut rate price. Johnson's contingent could have won by forfeit, but came up with the money just so the game could be played.

Illness virtually wrecked the Monroe County League activity last night, but there's plenty of tough basketball ahead. Before Chestnut Hill, currently setting the pace, can claim the championship it must defeat Barrett and Coolbaugh on successive nights in the final round. Barrett and Coolbaugh are currently tied for second place one full game behind Chestnut Hill. All three have been in the battle for the top spot this season, with first one and then the other battling back after seemingly falling out of contention.

The Pocono Mountains Basketball League lost the services of two more good officials. Hold on boys, it won't be long before you're playing without any referees. There are only a few left who are willing to work in that circuit. Prior to last night's Stroudsburg-Dick Little had scored 57 points in his last two games, 28 against Lehigh and 29 in the game with Catasauqua. Dick's 13 field goals in the Lehigh game was high total for an individual in any game in the first half.

Ronnie Esrang, a member of the Lake Harmony quintet, currently leading the Pocono Mountains Basketball League, is a brother of Jack Esrang, manager of the Lake Harmony team in the Pocono Mountains Basketball League. Moses Ward is currently resting rather than training at Harry's Farm. The popular boxer is regaining his health following a couple of defeats, in which his terrifically aggressive style failed to save the day.

One basketball player refused to believe a rule despite having it shown to him in the rule book following a Pocono Mountains League contest. Palmerston scored the most points for a team in the first half of the Lehigh Valley League when it registered 95 against Catasauqua. The 95 tally was more than the combined scores in Palmerston's 39-32 win over Stroudsburg. This total reached only 71.

Statistics kept during the course of varsity basketball games at Stroudsburg High, other than those present in the scorebook, are made through the efforts of John Whitehead, assistant football mentor and junior high school basketball coach. Dave Nevil has received several college offers for his football ability. Nevil held down an end position for Stroudsburg High last season.

I've heard reports that everyone connected with athletics in Monroe County aren't of the opinion that religion and color have nothing to do with making basketball players. Ray Welsh is scheduled to head for Florida next Saturday. Ray will again direct the running clinic for the Pittsburgh Pirates during spring training.

Stroudsburg Halts Whitehall Drive To Win, 57-54

Coplay's Rally Nips East Stroudsburg, 60-52

Mountaineers Cling To Tie For Top

STROUDSBURG clung to enough of a first half lead to land its second victory of the second half Lehigh Valley League flag race last night with a thin 57-54 verdict over Whitehall. The contest was played in the W. Main St. court and the result enabled the Mountaineers to remain in a first place deadlock.

The Mountaineers, not playing anything like the basketball they displayed against Catasauqua earlier in the week, managed to hold on in the final seconds of play and halt a bid for victory by a Whitehall contingent that has found the going rough all its season. Stroudsburg did all of its damage in the first half when the home team stepped off to a 15-8 lead at the end of the first quarter and to a 32-18 lead at the half-way mark. The home team had the better of the going in the second round, 17-10, and led 32-16 right before the halftime buzzer.

But in the second half the Mountaineers lost the magic formula which had resulted in four straight victories and an unfamiliar position on top of the Lehigh Valley League standings.

Instead of controlling the game as they did during the first half, the Mountaineers began committing mistakes after mistake and missed a countless number of shots from the field.

Whitehall took advantage of the Stroudsburg collapse and began to creep nearer and nearer the front runners with a 18-10 edge in the third round and an 18-15 advantage in the last eight minutes of action. The final buzzer halted the Whitehall drive three points short of its goal.

Stroudsburg converted only 23 of 80 shots from the field, hitting on six of 23 in the first quarter and eight for 17 in the second period. The Mountaineers went stone cold in the third period, making four of 19 tosses, but came back for five field goals in 11 attempts in the last round.

Dave Nevil and Dick Little led the Stroudsburg scoring parade with 14 points each. Nevil tallied six points in the first half and eight in the second, four coming by foul shots in the last period when the chips were down.

Little came up with seven points in each half, five coming in the last round when Whitehall threatened to pull one of the biggest upsets of the current campaign.

The win was the ninth in 15 outings for the Mountaineers, who were actually outscored from the floor last night, 24-23. But Stroudsburg's 11 for 24 showing from the foul line saved the day. The Zephyrs made good on six of 10 3-point shots.

Bob Marks and Ken Way, each with 14 points, were the big guns in a losing cause.

Whitehall gained a measure of revenge by defeating the Stroudsburg junior varsity, 36-28, in the preliminary tussle.

Indiana Star Leads Pack In Scoring

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 4 (AP)—Jack Crossan of Indiana holds undisputed first place as the top scorer, both in total points and top average, in the Pennsylvania State Teachers College Basketball Conference.

Crossan had tallied 149 points in six games for an average of almost 25 points per game.

Lloyd Gilmore of California is second high average scorer with 23 points per contest. Teammates Dick Majernik of California, Jim Rich of West Chester and Mike Duffy of Slippery Rock each have an average score of 21 points per game.

Greene-Dreher Falls Before Moscow, 54-35

MOSCOW—Moscow's championship hungry Warriors silenced Greene-Dreher-Sterling's offense last night and glided to a 54-35 victory here on the winning contingent's home floor.

Big Howard Bortree paced his mates to an important Wayne County Conference basketball victory, as the host outscored the visiting eagles in each of the four periods.

Greene-Dreher remained in the thick of the battle through the first half, although the Warriors led 10-8 at the end of the first period and 19-13 at halftime. Moscow held a 9-5 edge in the second stanza.

Moscow, coached by Jim Aikens, demonstrated its power in the second half by dominating the third round, 18-12, and the final stanza, 17-10.

The host team held a 19-11 edge in field goals and converted 16 of 28 charity tosses. The Stags of Greene-Dreher found the range on 13 of 24 free throws.

Bortree was the big gun for the Warriors with 16 counters, while John Manhart, with the same number of points, led the losing Greene-Dreher attack.

Greene-Dreher overcame the Moscow jayvees in the preliminary tussle, 48-21.

Four Georgetown Cagers Suspended
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—Four members of the Georgetown University basketball squad were suspended from the university today on disciplinary grounds. They are "Hank" Morano, Matt White and Dick Percudani, all members of the starting five, and Dick Farrell, a reserve.

The Rev. Richard C. Law, S.J., moderator of athletics, said the four had failed to "obey disciplinary regulations" on a recent southern trip and had displayed "a general attitude of non-cooperation" toward training rules.

Cavaliers Lead Most Of Distance

AN OUTMANNED East Stroudsburg cage machine battled a highly favored Copley contingent on even terms for 30 minutes last night, but during the last two minutes Copley came from behind to register a 60-52 Lehigh-Northampton League victory on the N. Courtland St. hardwood.

The Cavaliers, playing without Bill Pensyl and Bill Sommers, thrilled the crowd with their good brand of basketball and their constant drive before the force of numbers came to Copley's rescue in the fading moments of the thrilling ball game.

East Stroudsburg went to the post without Pensyl, who on the sidelines with a sprain-fracture of the left ankle, and Sommers, currently recovering from a virus attack.

Although outmanned from the very beginning and troubled with three fouls on center Danny Marvin in the first period, the home forces led 18-15 at the end of the first period and 28-25 at halftime, as both squads came up with 10 tallies in the second quarter.

Marvin committed his fourth personal foul at the beginning of the third stanza and his fifth midway in the same quarter, but even without the lanky sharpshooter the Cavaliers remained in the thick of the battle.

The score was tied three times and the lead changed hands twice in the third round. It was tied three more times in the final stanza before Copley came on to win in the fading moments of the ball game. Copley held a 13-12 edge in the third quarter and a 22-12 advantage in the final eight minutes of play. The Cavaliers led by a 30-28 count going into the last round.

Copley did much of its damage on foul shots in the final quarter as the home forces tried desperately to break up a strong "freeze" by the Copley cagers.

East Stroudsburg actually held a 22-20 advantage in field goals, but the visiting forces connected on 20 of 34 shots from the foul line. The Cavaliers converted only eight of 20 free throws.

Howard Smith was brilliant in a losing cause, as was the entire East Stroudsburg team. Smith, playing the finest game of his scholastic career, tallied 20 points, while Dick Gray's long one-handed shots accounted for 13. Barry Lambert tried to lead a last ditch rally with four of his eight points.

Bob "Red" Kupiszewski was the floor general who kept the home forces clicking right up to the fading moments.

"Rick" Mortimer was the big gun in a winning cause with 21 tallies, while every member of the Copley club broke into the scoring for at least one point.

East Stroudsburg partially evened matters by scoring a 58-56 victory over the Whitehall junior varsity behind the high scoring antics of King Beers and Carl Smith. Beers came up with 20 markers and Smith with 18.

Steelers Add To Roster
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 4 (AP)—The National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers announced today they've signed quarterback Vic Eaton, of the University of Missouri.

Eaton reportedly will receive $6,500 for his first year with the Steelers. He was No. 11 choice at the recent NFL draft meeting.

Cavilan Stages Late Spurt To Gain Nod Over Durando

NEW YORK, Feb. 4 (AP)—"Kid" Gavilan came off a three-month layoff to stage a furious last-minute rally that won a 10-round split decision over slugger Ernie Durando of Bayonne, N. J., tonight at Madison Square Garden. The verdict was greeted with a storm of boos from the good-sized crowd. Gavilan weighed 152½, Durando 160½.

The former welter champ from Cuba needed all his ring savvy and an old style closing spurt to pull the decision out of the fire against the 4 to 1 underdog. There were no knockdowns but the action was hot most of the way with Durando always pressing onward while The Kid fought in gusts as usual.

There was a surprising split among the officials that produced roars of disapproval from the crowd of 6,208 paying $21,956. Judge Bert Grant had it 6-7-4 for Gavilan and Judge Artie Alda 5-4-1 for Gavilan. However, Referee Mark Conn scored it 7-3-5 in favor of Durando, 7-3. The AP card had Gavilan on top 5-4-1.

Bangor Sets Two Records In Favorable Nod Over Pen Argyl

PEN ARGYL—Bangor High set two basketball records enroute to its biggest victory of the current Lehigh-Northampton League season, an 80-42 nod over Pen Argyl. The game was played here in the losing quintet's gymnasium last night.

Junior High To Play At Slatington

STROUDSBURG Junior High will attempt to get back on the winning track in basketball tonight when the Mountaineers, under the direction of Coach John Whitehead, oppose Slatington Junior High at Smith Hall.

The junior high school squads will play the preliminary contest, at 7 p.m., on a special fund raising program.

Slatington's Alumni will oppose Palmerston's Alumni in the main event, at 8 p.m., and all proceeds will go to the Slatington Police Fund.

In an earlier clash this season Slatington scored a thrilling 40-39 victory over Stroudsburg, on the latter's home boards.

Stroudsburg opened the present campaign with victories over Lehigh and Belvidere, but since that time has fallen before Blairtown, East Stroudsburg and Slatington.

A contest scheduled with Pen Argyl on Wednesday of this week was postponed until Monday, February 28, because of the recent snow.

Judge Theodore L. Reimel continued the case from Feb. 14 to April 4 despite a strong objection by Philadelphia Dist. Atty. Richardson Dilworth. Giardello and three co-defendants were indicted by the December grand jury on riot, assault, larceny and conspiracy charges as the result of a brawl last Oct. 29 in which a gasoline station was wrecked, an attendant slugged and the owner and his family terrorized.

Giardello's attorney, Michael Von Moschizker, sought the postponement so that the possibility of a conviction would not prejudice the fighter's chance of meeting Olson for the title.

Diworth said he was extremely disturbed over the motion for a continuance. He went on: "This man and a little group of hoodlums have been terrorizing South Philadelphia for a year. The word has been spread all over that this man will never come to trial, that the fix is in and that if he becomes champ, we couldn't try a champ."

A quick poll of ringside opinion showed a landslide 18-0 vote in favor of Gavilan although many thought it was close.

In the fifth, sixth and seventh rounds there were flashes of the Gavilan of old. At one stage in the seventh he ripped Durando's head with eight consecutive left hooks. But always the Jersey middleweight kept moving in, swinging away with his own heavy weapons.

Just when it seemed Durando's blows had begun to lose their zip, he staged a rally to grab the eighth and ninth. He was doing all right in the 10th, too, until the Cuban brushed back the years for a typical Gavilan-style eye-catching finish.

Gavilan was on trial tonight, after his dismal effort against Johnny Saxton in Philadelphia October 20, where he lost his welter title and claimed he was "robbed." Although many ringsiders thought he was ahead of Saxton, all agreed neither deserved to win a real "stinker."

The Slaters converted 34 of 55 foul shots to better the previous mark of 32 set against Wilson Borough in the 1952-1953 campaign and then scored 51 points in the second half for another new mark.

Bangor broke the game wide open in the third period by scoring 18 straight points, after Pen Argyl had proven troublesome in the first half.

Pen Argyl jumped off to a 7-4 lead and the score was tied five times before Bangor ran wild in the second period, 19-5 to hold a 29-18 halftime advantage. Pen Argyl led after eight minutes of play, 13-10.

Bangor went on to take any doubt out of the contest with a 26-12 bulge in the third stanza and a 25-12 advantage in the final round.

The Slaters held a 23-12 edge in field goals and Pen Argyl converted 18 of 30 charity tosses.

Don Keat enjoyed one of the biggest nights of his career as he tallied 27 points, while Wayne Pysker chipped in with 17. Don Andrews, with nine counters, was tops for Pen Argyl.

Pen Argyl won the junior varsity contest, 49-46.

Mat Warriors Seek Fourth Straight Win

EAST STROUDSBURG State Teachers College, currently in the midst of its most successful wrestling season in history, will attempt to stretch its victory string to four straight today when the Warriors oppose Millersville Teachers. The match is listed for the Millersville mats.

Coch George Ockershausen announced last night that he would feature a slightly altered lineup for tonight's activity.

Ockershausen, safely through the first three matches of the current campaign, has dropped Ken Cox from the heavy weight ranks to the 177-pound class and Charley Shaw from 177 to 167 pounds.

Shaw had five stitches removed from a gash above his left eye yesterday and is reportedly ready for action. Charley suffered the injury while winning a decision against Wilkes College last Saturday when his head struck the floor.

Bruce Haynes will again handle the 157-pound duties and highly rated Charley Dentith, despite having an infected toe lanced earlier in the week, will handle the 147-pound chores.

Jerry Ruskin will be in his usual 137-pound event, Roy Evans, 130, and "Spike" Petrinio, 123.

Jim McCullen will substitute for Cox in the heavy weight department, although he weighs only 136 pounds.

ESSTCS has taken the measure of Elizabeth, Bloomsburg and Wilkes without tasting defeat thus far this season.

Tonight's clash is listed for 8:15 p.m. and the Warriors will depart from Normal Hill at 2 p.m.

Pro Cagers Clash Today

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4 (AP)—The Philadelphia Warriors meet the Fort Wayne Pistons tomorrow afternoon (3 p.m. EST-NBC) in a nationally televised National Basketball Association game from Convention Hall.

Misericordia Invades ESSTC

COACH Genevieve Zimbar's girls from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College will attempt to make it two straight basketball victories for the present campaign today when they play host to College Misericordia in the Normal Hill gymnasium.

In their only other outing of the present campaign the Warriors scored a one-sided decision over Cheyney, also on the

East Stroudsburg Teachers Seek Third Win Against Kutztown Foe On Normal Hill Court

EAST STROUDSBURG State Teachers College will shoot for its third favorable basketball decision of the current campaign tonight when the Warriors play host to Kutztown Teachers on the Normal Hill court.

It will be the first clash of these two Pennsylvania State Teachers College foes this season and the ninth outing of the current campaign for the Warriors.

ESSTC, coached by Jerry Palia, owns decisions over Trenton and Cheyney, but have been beaten on two occasions by Millersville, and once each by Wilkes College, University of Scranton and Panzer.

In conference competition ESSTC has one victory and two defeats, while Kutztown's circuit mark is one-and-one.

Kutztown will feature the high scoring Roger Coceverri in its lineup. The former Catawissa High cager has broken every Kutztown scoring mark in the past two campaigns and is one of the highest point producers in Pennsylvania during the same period.

Palia announced yesterday that he was undecided about his starting lineup and was seriously thinking about making several changes. The opening contingent will be chosen from a group of seven. Members of the group are

Ray Kaseman, Jack Burke, Denny Sullivan, Nick Gatto, Charley German, George Heidenreich and Wilmont Smith.

Also expected to see action are Lee Hill, Stroudsburg's Jack Newell, Walter Bjorn, Ray Bassolari and Tom Spillane.

Kutztown won four of its first six games and dropped a two-point thriller to West Chester in the final five seconds of its most recent outing.

Tonight's preliminary encounter will send the ESSTC junior varsity against Kleckner's Rockets, of Allentown, at 7 p.m. The main event will get underway at approximately 8:15 p.m.

Two Tilts At Pocono Pines

POCONO PINES — Lake Harmony will risk sole ownership of first place in the Pocono Mountains Basketball League against fifth place Barrett tonight in the second half of a doubleheader listed here on the Tolyhanna Township High School court.

The opening half of the bargain attraction will feature Williams' Pharmacy against the Jim Thorpe Eagles in an exhibition contest. The Pharmacy contingent is currently holding down third place in the Pocono Mountains League at the present time.

The first game will get underway at 7:15 p.m. and the second outing at approximately 8:30 p.m.

Lake Harmony moved into first place in the standings on Thursday night by sidetracking the Stroudsburg Poconos. The Poconos are now one-half game off the pace.

Barrett dropped a very close decision to Gray's Chevrolet in its most recent outing.

Crowe's Keglers Roll

CROWE'S KEGGLERS, battling for first place in the Delaware Valley Bowling League, will roll against Norton Oil at Harmon's Recreation today. The match is listed for 8 p.m.

Palmer Sinks Long Putt To Lead Phoenix Open

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 4 (AP)—Dropping a 40-foot putt on the final hole, husky Johnny Palmer took the lead at the 36-hole midweek point in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament today with a 135.

While Johnny was one of the tournament favorites, another Palmer, Arnold (no relation) surprised by carding a 68 for 137.

Winner of the National Amateur title last summer, Arnold turned pro Nov. 17 but can't collect any money here regardless of his finish. Professional Golfers Assn. rules call for a six-month probationary period before players are eligible for cash.

Although the start of play was delayed again today because of frost on the greens, the bright sun burned it off in short order and winds, which bothered competitors yesterday, slackened.

Three golfers declared with Johnny Palmer in second place at 67 after the first round faded in the second. Walter Burkemo, former PGA titlist from Franklin, Mich., dropped his putter and broke it after the 12th hole. He completed the round putting with a driver and took a 71 for 138.

Jack Fleck, Davenport, Iowa, slipped to a 73 for a 140, and Jack Mann, Temple, Tex., who finished the final three holes of his first round this morning before hitting into the second, had a 76-143.

U. S. Open champion Ed Furgol, defending his Phoenix title, remained very much in contention as he added a 68 to his opening 70 for a 138. With the same total on 69-69 came Cary Middlecoff, Klamath Lake, N. Y., who lost a playoff to Furgol here last year.

Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., was eliminated with a 148 total.

Yosko Hits Writeoff Of Medical Bills

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4 (AP)—Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (D—Northampton) today proposed a program to end what he described as "illegal write-offs" of medical care bills at the state's 10 medical-surgical hospitals.

The Democratic senator said earlier that official hospital records for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1953, showed patient bills amounting to $2,210,303, were "illegally" wiped off the books by the State Revenue Department at the 10 state-owned hospitals.

"With funds so badly needed by the state, every dollar the state is entitled to should be collected," Yosko said.

His program would stipulate these four points:

1. Dismiss the revenue agents assigned to these hospitals and employ competent accountants who will act as credit managers and who will make a thorough investigation of the financial ability of patients to pay.

2. Establish a uniform, modern accounting system at these hospitals that will include a prompt reporting service to the departments of welfare, justice and revenue.

3. Analyze and investigate all cases involving writeoffs to determine ability to pay.

4. In those cases where records were falsified, those guilty of the falsification be not only dismissed but prosecuted in accordance with the law.

Under the law, Yosko pointed out, all state hospitals accounts delinquent for a period of 90 days must be referred to the Department of Justice. "This was not done involving the amount ($2,210,303) in question," he said.

Yosko reported the following writeoffs at each of the 10 hospitals during the period June 1, 1952 to May 31, 1953 (amount of accounts received, listed first and free service second):

Cornellville, $79,621, $51,512; Coaldale, 24,275, 167,216; Blossburg, 46,041, 199,788; Ashland, 18,737, 288,153; Hazleton, 85,995, 348,954; Locust Mountain 10,886, 148,929; Nanticoke, 33,692, 174,546; Phillipsburg, 65,299, 78,384; Scranton, 186,347, 523,241; Shamokin, 106,926, 229,500 total $657,809, $2,210,303.

Variety Show Is Presented

SHAWNEE—Smithfield residents presented a three-part variety show in the Community Center here last night.

A capacity audience attended the performance in the center, formerly known as Worthington Hall. First part of the program was a playlet called "As You Were" and described as "a genial classroom parody." Stars of the show were Frances Stearns, Ione Middaugh, Cornelia May, Allan Sterner, Dorothy Barry, Daisy Cron, Paul Bartholomew, LaVonne Kupiec, Ruth Shook and David Slater.

Part two was titled "Those That Can." It included separate "acts" by Richard MacDonald and Johnny Altieri, trumpet players; "The Coo-coo," accordionists; Paul Bartholomew singing "Let Me Go, Lover"; Ellen Mazer, flute soloist; vocalists Ruth Shook and Ione Middaugh doing "Pickaninny Sand Man" and "Sweetest Lil' Feller."

Tom Waring was introduced and entertained as part of the second section of the show.

"More Fun" was the title of the third part. It was described as "a minstrel with many odd parts" in the program notes.

Among those in the minstrel show were Morgan Hebard, Bob Allen, Nelson Overfield, Charlie Coco, Spike Bink, Dick MacDonald, Johnny Altieri, Hal Hamlen, Don Witteraft, Bob Beards, Hal Keisling, David Newquist.

Also Ernest Silfee, Nest Taylor, Sal Pappalardo, Russ Scott, Frank Dreisbach, Ken Fritz, Bob Courtwright, Ernie LaBar, Don Albert, Herb Baker, John Bryogle, Art Kroll, Ken Stettler, Mrs. Stettler, Carolyn Bitterman, Audrey Stettler, Gordon Bitterman, Marlene Law and Andy McCarthy, the director.

The population of the U. S. Pacific Coast areas is increasing at the rate of 3.7 per cent a year, about double the national average.

Calypso Music Captivates Princess Margaret On Tour

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Feb. 4 (AP)—Princess Margaret has been spinning platters of hot calypso music in her royal suite at staid Government House. Word has gone out that the visiting princess has been captivated by the island music.

She will take back to England with her a gift album of calypso records.

Margaret was delighted with the calypso tunes played at Wednesday's off-season carnival show—one of the entertainments for the sister of Queen Elizabeth II on her month-long Caribbean tour.

Tomorrow she will fly to the neighboring island of Tobago for a day's tour. On tonight's program was a "command performance" by five of Trinidad's most accomplished calypso players.

Two Slain In Quarrel

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4 (AP)—A 55-year-old man is in Delaware County prison tonight charged with the fatal shooting of an elderly woman and her daughter after a lover's quarrel.

Edward Novak, the daughter's suitor and owner of the house in which he lived with the two women, surrendered to police, admitting he shot Mrs. Katherine Jones, 77, and her daughter, Ella Katherine, 42, in a fit of rage after a quarrel.

Miss Jones was the manager of a women's apparel store in Kensington.

Police said the quarrel was a continuation of one which had been going on for a couple of weeks because Miss Jones, after planning to marry Novak, changed her mind.

The shootings occurred in suburban Darby where Police Chief John Buley and a patrolman found the body of the daughter on the living room floor and the mother sprawled across the back steps. Police were summoned by residents who heard shots and saw Mrs. Jones on the rear step.

New State Health Secretary Advocates Fluoridation Of Water To Curb Tooth Decay

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4 (AP)—Dr. Berwyn F. Mattison, the state's new health secretary, today called for "further extension" of fluoridation of public water supplies to help prevent tooth decay in children.

"The practice of adjusting fluoride levels in municipal drinking water to prevent excessive dental decay is one which has been approved by all responsible public health, medical and dental agencies," Mattison told a newsman.

"The safety of this new health protective procedure is attested by the detailed health records in many communities using municipal water with adequate fluorides for a decade or more," Mattison added.

"I certainly hope that dental decay, the commonest health defect in most of our school-age children, can be attacked on a very broad scale by further extension of water fluoridation under proper control and supervision in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," Mattison declared.

The Health Department reported that by the time the average child reaches 16 years of age 10 of his permanent teeth have been attacked by decay.

The department also reported that 60 per cent of the cavities could have been prevented if the youngsters' water supplies had been fluoridated.

More than three million persons in Pennsylvania are now drinking fluoridated water, the Health Department said.

Under current department regulations any community that can meet and maintain Health Department standards may have its application approved to fluoridate its public water supplies. Applications by communities must be endorsed by local dental and medical societies, as well as the local board of health.

Philadelphia is the largest population area now supplying fluoridated water to its residents. Mansfield, Tioga County, with a population of about 2,650 people, is the smallest community carrying on a water fluoridation program.

Meanwhile, observers disagreed as to how far Egypt would carry her opposition. It was considered possible that she would be satisfied with a compromise by which Iraq would not make automatic commitments to Turkey in direct violation of Arab interests. It was even possible that she would eventually join the trend toward the West herself if she could get guarantees against Israel and sufficient military and economic aid to maintain her local leadership, which has slipped a good bit.

The Arabs haven't forgotten the imperial Turkey of a relatively few years ago, and its frequent misuse of too much power. There is a basic tendency to steer clear of her. But one of the chief facts of life in the Middle East is the growth of her power under her alliance with the West, and strong implications of benefits by joining her and thus guaranteeing Western interest in the whole area.

Once a Middle Eastern adjunct of the North Atlantic treaty is organized Britain and the United States obviously would give it important support and at the same time act as guardians against any action of disruption within it.

THE FIRST official meeting of the Police Reserve will be held at the Italian Club Monday at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Various plans for the future will be discussed by this newly-formed organization. The group will take part in numerous local activities during the year.

Representatives from the State Police and Red Cross Chapter of this area will be on hand as guest speakers. A Red Cross nurse will explain and give instructions concerning the use of first aid. An election of officers will also be held.

The Police Reserve unit is not connected with the Civil Defense program but many of its members are also members of the CD Auxiliary Police. Membership is open to anyone in Monroe County.
